

Question: How is it possible to live without enemies?

What do I notice?

What could this mean, in light of Jesus and the cross?

