

Question: What can we expect of God?

✍ God will r_____ the c_____.

✍ Jesus is the j_____ of God.

✝ We can expect j_____ from God.

Good Question...

1. What surprises me about this text?
2. What is one question I would like to ask?

➤ Text or email: ask@semconline.com

Sermon notes:

Sermon Links: ~ Luke 4:16-21 ~ Isaiah 59:7-8 ~ Proverbs 1:16 ~
~ Romans 1:16-18; 3:15-18; 6:6-7, 13, 17-18; 12:1-2~
~ Psalm 36:1 ~ 1 Corinthians 1:22-29

ADVENT 2020

Advent is a season of great expectations. Not because of gifts under trees, drinks in hand, or parties galore. We have great expectations because Advent reminds us, annually, our God and Creator is a missionary God. He is merciful and gracious. He rescues, restores and redeems. He comes close, stays close and is eternally faithful. Our hope now and forever is in Jesus, our king, and in this hope, we celebrate love and peace, with joy.

Advent 2020, is especially unique at SEMC this year. We will have special children's features at each of our Advent worship services. Students from our Senior Youth lent their imaginations to creating bulletin cover artwork, unique for each Sunday. We are hosting the Exaudi Chamber Choir for a special, Choral Christmas Concert. Baptism and communion are also sprinkled in, amongst our Advent services. Pastor Jason returns from his sabbatical in time to share at our special Christmas morning service.

ADVENT 2002.

Join us. You are welcome here at SEMC.