WHAT IS OHE?

A unique orphanage located in Kinshasa, the capital of the Democratic Republic of Congo. Unlike traditional orphanages, the 37 OHE children have a home and a family for the rest of their lives where their physical, emotional and spiritual needs are met. SEMC has been helping OHE since 2012 through prayers and finances.

Israel's Story:

Israel's mother died when he was 5 years old. His aunt took him in but 2 months later her son died. The aunt accused Israel of using sorcery to kill her son. She put Israel in a sack and planned on throwing him away but a dog smelled Israel in the sack and started barking. Bystanders forced the aunt to open the sack she was carrying and rescued Israel. Eventually government social workers brought Israel to OHE where he has found a home in Jacob and Kulemb's family.

Financial

- Annual OHE Budget $50,000
- Food $1,200/month
- Primary education $190/student/yr
- Secondary education $490/student/yr
- University education $490/student/yr
- OHE is affiliated with Africa Inter-Mennonite Mission
